

Thomas Paine – Eastham Land Records 1650 - 1745

Thomas Paine arrived in Plymouth Colony from England in 1635 at age 23. By 1639 he was working as a carpenter in Yarmouth. His first wife Elizabeth (1616 - 1645) died in Yarmouth shortly after birth of their second child.

About 1648 Thomas married Mary Snow (1630 - 1704) of Eastham. Mary was the daughter of Nicholas Snow (1599 - 1676), a founder of Eastham, and Constance Hopkins (1605 - 1677), a Mayflower passenger as a teenager. Thomas and Mary had nine children. Thomas, Mary and her parents Nicholas and Constance Snow all most likely are buried in unmarked graves in Cove Burying Ground in Eastham.

Thomas owned horses and cattle but his primary occupation was building windmills and watermills including the windmill which stands today on the Town Green in Eastham. He held several responsible town positions including Constable, Surveyor of Highways, Sealer, Deputy, Selectman and Rate Maker. He served multiple one year terms for several of these positions. He often was appointed to committees for laying out land boundaries and settling land disputes and to special projects such as building a new meeting house in 1678.
